In every village by the sea...
There stands a tall and ancient tree...
That shelters from sky above...
A tree of hope, a tree of love...

It shares our joy and feels our pain...
It grow with us through sun and rain...
It stays so green the whoe year through...
And flowers when a dream comes true...

Bunga sayang, bunga sayang...
You are heaven's own work of art...
Bunga sayang, bunga sayang...
Gentle flower of the heart...

Bunga sayang, bunga sayang...
You are heaven's own work of art...
Bunga sayang, bunga sayang...
Gentle flower of the heart...
