Well it started out, like a dream come true
And all I thought about was just me and you
You meant the world to me
And I never thought you'd never change
But you're so different now, it couldn't get much worse
You're like some bitch from another - universe
It's just another day, another argument with you

And every time I look around
All I see is you and your blank expression
But that really doesn't bother me at all

Well I know you think you know, everything about me
But that doesn't mean you can tell me what to do
And I know you think you know, everything about me
But that doesn't mean I want to be with you

Well its over now, I can't take it anymore
What did you think I'd do, why should I stay here for
You pushed me way too far
And now I'm walking out your door
So don't talk to me, about the things I do
I don't want to hear another word from you
No don't talk to me, it's just a waste of time

And every time I look around
All I see is you and your blank expression
But that really doesn't bother me at all

Well I know you think you know, everything about me
But that doesn't mean you can tell me what to do
And I know you think you know, everything about me
But that doesn't mean I want to be with you

And every time I look around
All I see is you and your blank expression
But that really doesn't bother me at all

Well I know you think you know, everything about me
But that doesn't mean you can tell me what to do
And I know you think you know, everything about me
But that doesn't mean I want to be with you

Well I think you think you know [x2]
