"Green Eggs And Ham"

You and I will never be the same
From the way we look to the meaning of our names
You and I will never think the same
It's the same old story, it's the same old lies

It still goes on and on forever without hope
This democratic joke

It seems that somehow time has passed us by
Our attitudes have wasted too much time
There must come a time for us to change our ways
In stubbornness we struggle on

So it seems to stay forever day by day
This democratic joke

History repeats in funny ways
You change your world, it's almost everyday There must come a time for you to settle down (to settle down)
And give reality a chance

You somehow find a way to finally revoke
This democratic joke
