It's the morning, I wake up all alone
Surrounded strangely, I know I'm far from home
I hit the road but will it lead me back to you?
I don't know where you are, but there's nothing else to do

Well I still love you even though you let me down
Everything you do just makes me want to frown
Betrayal hurts, I don't know why I stick around
Well I still love you even though you let me down
(DOWN!)

Hey!

Well I still love but you always let me down
Everything you do just makes me want to frown
Betrayal hurts I don't know why I stick around
Well I still love you even though you let me down
(DOWN!)

Hey!

You always let me down, go!

Poison pen, a poison heart, a poison mind
The more I look the worse things you let me find
A new love letter, not for me but it's from you
Some other sucker's gonna suffer for you too!

I still love you even though you let me down
Everything you do just makes me want to frown
Betrayal hurts I don't know why I stick around
Well I still love you even though you let me down
(DOWN!)

Hey!

You always let me down, go!
