I spent last night, sitting in a bar room
Spent the time, listening to sad tunes
This is not the way life used to be
Wondering if you are thinking about me

Well I spent yesterday, worrying about you
Spent the day, wondering about you
Think about the way life used to be
Wondering if you are thinking about me

Coz there's no-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do
No-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do to me

I wandered round, the places where we used to go
You may be there, hey I might even bone you
Think about the way life used to be
Wondering if you are thinking about me

Coz there's no-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do
No-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do to me

Coz there's no-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do
No-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do to me

I spent last night, sitting in a bar room
Spent the time, listening to sad tunes
Thinking about the way life used to be
Wondering if you are thinking about me

Coz there's no-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do to me
No-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do to me

Coz there's no-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do

No-one, no-one but you
No-one but you can do what you do to me
