You've got no emotion and you've caused a
commotion,
Well you've always gotta have your way.
Selfish little miss, well I've had enough of this,
Today's the day your gonna pay!
You're my big mistake - now I've had all that I can take,
Time to pack your things and go.
Time for my revenge - you ask are we still friends,
But me hurt me like you'll never know!
There's plenty in the sea - you know you're not the one
for me,
So I'll find another place to play.
Selfish little bitch - time for me to make a switch,
Today could be my lucky day! and so...
It's time we were apart - time to mend my broken heart,
Don't want to hear your name again,
You wanted wedded bliss and a house and some kids
But all you gave me was this pain...
What can I do - you think you're clever,
I say - no never.
What can I do - you thinks it's clover,
I say - its over.
You say that we're a pair, I'll scream in my despair.
