I'd like to take this time to say thank you to Brock,
You shattered my knee in two places so now I can't walk,
It's official. I got crippled by the meathead, But Brock, you left me breathin' when you should have left me dead,
So I swear John Cena's a name you will remember,
From this point on I declare war on Brock Lesnar!
It's more than a match, it's a total obsession, I'll be watching everything you do twenty four-seven,
Forcing you to keep me in the back of your mind,
And since your brains so small, I won't be hard to find,
I'll break you down, watch you drown and not throw you a rope,
This is jail Brock, we're inmates, and you just dropped the soap!
