There's a little pile of ashes where my old life used to be.
Credit cards and memories all dumped into the sea.
Well this ain't no time for bullshit as I fly into the sun.
Well you can't trust anybody if you can't trust number one.
Well the man tells me my future, there's not so far away.
And get ready for tomorrow, I gotta waste my whole today.
My inner luck knows better, it's what I wanna hear.
Just like a diamond bullet where it's crystal (crystal) clear.
Oh yeah!
Wooooo!
I can slap a tornado,
I can dry up a sea, yeah.
When I live for the moment,
There ain't no (ain't no) in me
You'll never find your pleasure if you worry about your pain,
And your precious little details are stretchin' out my brain.
Well you spin around and bite your nails, now let me tell you son,
That you can't trust anybody if you can't trust number one.
Well the man tells me my future and it's not so far away,
And I get ready for tomorrow, I gotta waste my whole today.
Well my inner luck knows better, it's what I wanna hear.
Just like a diamond bullet where it's crystal (crystal) clear.
Oh yeah!
I can slap a tornado,
I can dry up a sea.
When I live for the moment,
There ain't no (ain't no) in me.
Now don't you sell me no future, yeah.
Don't you sell me your love.

I ain't vouchin' your number,
You couldn't pay me enough.
I ain't buyin' no future when the past is so far away.
I ain't buyin' no future when the past is so far away.
I ain't buyin' no future when the past is so far away.
I ain't buyin' no future when the past is so far away,
yeah.
I can slap a tornado,
I can dry up a sea, yeah.
When I live for the moment,
There ain't no (ain't no) in me.
Now don't you sell me no future, yeah.
Don't you sell me your love.
I ain't vouchin' your number,
You couldn't pay me enough, you couldn't pay me enough.
Couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
Couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
You couldn't pay me enough.
