Let's go

All alone in my bed tonight
I find myself dreaming of all the things I might
Do to you
And do for me
Behind closed doors where nobody else will see

I know when I get you alone
There's gonna be trouble
Just hope that I won't lose control
I'll have you seeing double

Fanasties and dangerous dreams
All have my head spinning in a world of schemes
What to do when it's up to me
Take you places you have never seen

I know when I get you alone
There's gonna be trouble
Just hope that I won't lose control
I'll have you seeing double

I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you

All of my life they told me I'm wrong
I thought they were right
But then you came along
I finally believe
I finally can see
I was right all along
And it brought you to me

I know when I get you alone
There's gonna be trouble
Just hope that I won't lose control
I'll have you seeing double

I know when I get you

I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you

I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
