

Wrights "Knew All Along"

Visit "Knew All Along" on MotoLyrics.com

The things you told me just a little while
Wouldn't've taken me a hundred years
I can't imagine travelin' these miles
Without somebody like you here

Guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home
'Cause he loves them too much to let them stay
Guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home
But I didn't know it was gonna be today

I remember the places that we've been
The little things we used to do
Looking back now that's when I began
To realize that I'm a lot like you

Guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home
'Cause he loves them too much to let them stay
Guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home
But I didn't know it was gonna be today

Friends and family helped to pass the time
I'm thumbing through pictures of you
Feelin' lonesome, missin' you and cryin'
But that's not what you'd want me to do

Guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home
'Cause he loves them too much to let them stay
Guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home
But I didn't know it was gonna be today

Guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home
But I didn't know it was gonna be today
No, I didn't know it was gonna be today

Visit Wrights page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.