Go ahead and tip your hat at the girls as they walk by
They can smile right back at you, don't care if they try Give a big ol' grin and wink at every one you see It don't make no difference 'cause you were made for me

You were made in heaven unless there's something that I missed
They must've stamped my name on the packing list
Designed and custom built with a lifetime guarantee
Delivered by your mama, you were made for me

You can flirt with all the boys, well, I don't give a hoot They turn their heads in wonder just because you're so cute
Well, I've got lots of problems, they list from A to Z
But I ain't worried baby 'cause you were made for me

You were made in heaven unless there's something
that I missed
They must've stamped my name on the packing list
Designed and custom built with a lifetime guarantee
Delivered by your mama, you were made for me

You don't have to tell me, I know what I've got I know what I'm getting honey, I know what I'm not Those little imperfections are sweet as they can be Guess I'll have to keep you 'cause you were made for
me

You were made in heaven unless there's something
that I missed
They must've stamped my name on the packing list
Designed and custom built with a lifetime guarantee
Delivered by your mama, you were made for me
