Well, keep on runnin' far my baby just keep on thinkin' everything's here for you take all the good, leave all the bad and wrap it around your life and when tomorrow comes we'll open our eyes and we'll be halfway home on this great wild ride

We're goin away, we're goin away throw the sign on the door we'll be back someday
we'll bust through this life, not play by the rules they're gonna recognize we'll never play their games

Just take away your hearty moments and toss aside the guilt that haunted you tell the bars that lock you inside "there's no room in here" so pick up your heart, and pack up your bags because now we're halfway home on this great wild ride

we'll be back someday
we'll bust through this life, not play by the rules the gonna recognize we won't play their games
we'll be back someday
we'll be back someday

Keep on runnin far my baby

Because we're goin away, we're goin away

we'll bust through this life, not play by the rules they're gonna recognize we don't play their games
we'll be back someday

we'll be back someday
we'll bust through this life, not play by the rules
they're gonna recognize we'll never play their games
we'll be back someday
just throw the sign on the door
we'll be back someday
