"I Thought I Told You"

I thought I told you, don't come around But now I see you in my backround
And now I'm wondering if Ill talk to you Well you know the awnser, yes you do I cant believe its over but I'm glad its through

I never knew it would be awhile till we end up in our own conversations
I never knew we'd end up singing about our past relation
I never knew we'd end up here so far from one another
But I wont fall for you anymore

You were gonna come over, if you were free
But you sent an email so i didnt have to see The the pictures on your face full of disgrace
And you didnt know what to say
But the words you said didnt make sense anyway

I never knew it would be awhile till we end up in our own
conversations
I never knew we'd end up singing about our past
relation
I never knew we'd end up here so far from one another
But I wont fall for you anymore
But I wont fall if you call back x3

I never knew it would be awhile till we end up in our own conversation
I never knew we'd end up singing about our past
relation
I never knew we'd end up here so far from one another
But i wont fall for you anymore
