The sun is shining outside but I will stay here with you
And we could last the summer with just us two And we could be friends, be lovers, we could do all of the above
But I all wanna do is be just us two
And we hold hands and we could walk on the beach
But that doesnt matter anymore I need you here with me

Lets go and pick up where we left off when things got bad
I know we can turn it around, and make everything what we had
I know what I need is you here right now

We could be holding lemonade in the back of a car
We could be singing songs about how we went for far Then it all fell to the ground, got nothing here anymore
But all I really need is you here in my arms

Lets go and pick up where we left off when things got
bad
what we had
I know what I need is you here in my arms

I cant remember why you called me late last night
I could of, sworn we had got into a fight
But maybe not cause now you want me back in your life
But one thing is for sure your my type

Lets go and pick up where we left off when things got
bad
what we had
But I know what I need is you here right now Lets go and work things out and make everything alright
I know we can be together and we'll, we'll be just fine Lets go and pick up when things got bad
I know we can turn it around, and make everything

what we had
But I know what I need is you here right now Lets go and pick things up and make everything what we had
I know we can turn it around and make everything not so bad
But I know what I need is you here right now
