VERSE 1

Take a walk out
And look across
Feel the energy racing in
Calm and composed
I'm found
Will my blood still thicken

Regenerate the emotion
Encased in molten
Bodies boiling
Over and over
Seeing us sober
Let the vibe echo through

CHORUS

All the people there
Shouting our names
As crazy as they can
And this shows
The power our music withholds

VERSE 2

There's a sign of life
Out in the Ocean of hands
Reaching out for me
It's the blond with blue eyes
She's turning her head to see

All that emotion
Stirs up the ocean
Starting commotion
Her body boils
Over the barrier
Escaping the terror
All I know
It better hold

CHORUS

All the people there

Shouting our names
As crazy as they can
And this shows
The power our music withholds

Oh I can't believe
The sound of the rumble
Shakes me to my knees
Like a stun gun trigger
Losing its grip
Or will it slip

CHORUS
All the people there
Shouting our names
As crazy as they can
And this shows

Oh I can't believe
The sound of the rumble
Shakes me to my knees
Like a stun gun trigger
Losing its grip
Or will it slip
