Everybody want's to be a Star-really doesn't matter who you are.

Everybody want's to be a Star

Nowadays people don't work anymore-get money for nothing but still they get bored the kids of tomorrow just wana get rich-with no education end up like a bitch keep your feet on the ground and beware of your dreams

cause things aren't just what they seems.

Everybody want's to be a Star-really doesn't matter
who you are.

Everybody want's to be a Star

Everybody want's to be a Star-really doesn't matter
who you are.

Everybody want's to be a Star

I'm tired of these wannabees you've seen on tv-it's not that kind of person that I want to be they achieved really nothing but still they are here-a new bunch of dreamers that comes out every year

cause things aren't just what they seems.

Everybody want's to be a Star-really doesn't matter
who you are.

Everybody want's to be a Star

Everybody want's to be a Star-really doesn't matter
who you are.

Everybody want's to be a Star
