Fly away from the darkness now leave it behind
it's time for some change in your life
away from the darkness
I give you the key
it's time for your mind to break free

It's not easy to live in the world of today everyone that I know just wanna fly away there's a feeling I've got in my mind you've gotta wake up and leave it behind it's time for some change now listen what I have to say

leave it behind
it's time for some change in your life

Lots of people they livin' their lifes of their own with all of your problems I tell you you're not alone
