Well, I stoped where you were working
Just to have a cup of coffee or two
And it was there you stole my heart from me
You made me fall in love with you

So now you're under arrest
And you're sentence is life
Yeah, you're under arrest
You gotta be my wife

Well, you know, sweet thing, you broke Cupid's law
Well, honey, that's a crime
So you better come along with me
Be someone, just now you've gotta be mine

So you're under arrest
And your sentence is life
Yeah, you're under arrest
You gotta be my wife

Well, you started a riot within my heart
Made me fall in love
So I'm gonna lock you in solitary
Feed you on kisses and hugs

So you're under arrest
And your sentence is life
Yeah, you're under arrest
You gotta be my wife

For the rest of life
You've gotta be my wife
