I'll never see any side of heaven
I walk for miles through a blazing hell
It doesn't matter what you think I'm supposed to be Because I myself know all too well

I'll open your eyes and make you see
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you

Walls of Jericho
The Walls of Jericho

My mind alone is filled with rage for you
I am the pasture to you sheep
I am the master of my destiny
I am the king of all I see
King, king

I'll open your eyes and make you see
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you

Walls of Jericho
(3, 2, 1)
Here I come again
Come again
3, 2, 1

Here I come
Here I come again
3, 2, 1
Here I come again

Here I come

3, 2, 1
Here I come
Here I come

I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you

I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll bring down the walls around you

The Walls of Jericho
Break the Walls of Jericho
