WWE
"Sean O'haire (come On)"

Come On!
Come On!
Come On!
Come On!
Come On!

I've crossed the line and I've got no shame
Breaking the rules everytime I play
Running the edge, I'm giving the chase
Nothing to lose, I've got nothing to say
What you want doesn't matter anymore
I'm stepping up and I'm ready for war
Look at the ones fallen before
Coming to me trying to even the score

Come On!
With whatever you've got!
Come On!
Take your best shot!
Come On!
I'm one step ahead, gonna leave you for dead!
And I won't stop!
I won't stop!

I got you tighter then old Bill Cole,
I'm just saying what you already know
You're gonna give up, you better lay low
Nowhere to hide! You got nowhere to go!

Cross the line and I got no shame
I'm breaking rules everytime I play
Running the edge, I'm giving the chase
Nothing to lose, I've got nothing to say

Come On!
With whatever you've got!
Come On!
Take your best shot!
Come On!
I'm one step ahead, gonna leave you for dead!
And I won't stop!
I won't stop!

Come On!
Come On!
Come On!
Come On!
With whatever you've got!
Come On!
Take your best shot!
Come On!
I'm one step ahead, gonna leave you for dead!
And I won't stop!
I won't stop!"
