You know (you know)
What me say
SOS
I hear them shoutin'
I hear them cryin'

Because

You woke up in a badman place
You no safe you could run for days
You can't get away
I bring relief for sorrow and pain
You should of never tried get in my face

And it's a shame (what a shame)
You lose your life
You have no (no) more (more) time
Your destiny (knee) is (is) mine (here them callin')

SOS (I hear them callin')
SOS (I hear them shoutin')
SOS I hear them cryin')
SOS (I hear them callin')

You know (you know)
What me say, boo

Hey mister I been telling you
To be afraid
Cause this badman
Him have bad news for you today

And it's a shame (what a shame)
You lose your life
You have no (no) more (more) time
Your destiny (knee) is (is) mine (here them callin')

SOS (I hear them callin')
