

Are You God? "Deep Rise"

Visit "Deep Rise" on MotoLyrics.com

You've got to boost your mind
Just don't leave behind
Your right to freedom
- seek all the answers

Don't throw away
Your biggest chance
To find a life to live

Studying ways to comprehend
Try to understand the human matter
Try to understand -
Try to understand the understood

Dedication made your head a cold thinking machine
Medications are the law
You're born just to win
To win the race to be the model doctor
The modern doctor
The fancy doctor

Your illusions fade away
When you make an error [x4]
Goodbye

*Throwing away your only chance
You thought that you knew
Crippled man, sad remains
God will not help you
No friend but yourself
You'll pay for that
Prepare for the real test*

*Throwing away your only chance
You thought that you knew
Crippled man, sad remains
You'll pay for that
Prepare for the real test
God will not help you
No friend but yourself*

Compassion dies

*Lords of oppression
In jail you'll die
Your knowledge won't help you now*

*Loser
This is what you are
Bad dreams
Nightmares, mental scars
The weight of justice will crush you
And smash your middling good intentions*
