Every day, Every Night
I find myself dreaming of all the things I might do to you, and do for me behind closed doors where nobody else will see

I know when i get you alone
There's gonna be trouble
Just hope that i don't lose control I'll have you seeing double fantasies and dangerous dreams all have my head spinning in a world of schemes what to do when it's up to me Take you places you have never seen

Chorus

I know when i get you alone
I know when i get you alone
I know when i get you alone

All my life they told me i'm wrong
I thought they were right, but then you came along I finally believe, and now I can see I was right all along, and it brought you to me

Chorus
