Up and down that lonely road of faith
I have been there
Unprepared for the storms and the tides that rise
I've realized one thing, how much I love you
And it hurts to see, to see you cryin'
I believe we can make it through the winds of change (chaaaaange)

God is great indeed
If you believe, in the everlife (Yeah we gotta)
Make some sense of the pieces not defined (Oh no, Oh no)
And if you just hold on,
I wont let you fall (I wont let you fall)
We can make it through the storms and the winds of change

(Oh no, Oh no,
yeah yeah
No No)

Though I walk through the valley of darkness
I am not afraid
Cause I know I'm not alone

And if the wind blows east, would you follow me
And if the wind blows north, would ya stay your course
And if the wind blows west, would ya second guess
And if it blows to the south, would you count me out
And if the sun don't shine, would you still be mine
And if the sky turns grey, would you walk away
Would you say I do, if I say I'll be
And walk this road through life with me
You know I love youuuuuu

On this loooooonely road of faith
On this looooo-onely road of faith
