Times are hard, they say, they say I've lost my way
They whisper and they shout some things I shouldn't hear

But I don't mind and I don't care
'cause I have you and that's enough
I don't mind, 'cause I am blessed with love
I don't mind, 'cause I am blessed with love

They try to break me down, they can try to make me fail
Or try to make me feel like I'm not worth it all

But I don't mind, and I don't care
'Cause I have you and that's enough
I don't mind, 'cause I am blessed with love
I don't mind, 'cause I am blessed with love
Love, love

And even if the world would turn it's back on me
Oh I, I don't mind

They try to break me down, they can try to make me fail

But I don't mind, and I don't care
'cause I have you and that's enough
I don't mind, 'cause I am blessed with love

I don't mind, and I don't care
'cause I have you and that's enough
I don't mind, 'cause I am blessed with love
Love, love, love, love
