I know thwre's something you forgot
Something you left behind
You play the role of someone you're not
Ignoring the one you could find inside

But you are home, you are safe and loved here
This ain't 'bout right or wrong
'cause you are perfect like you are now

You numb your pain by being so brave
Yes, you're brave by pretending you're fine
But five years from now you ask: is that all I gave?
Alive, but nothing inside, walking blind

But you are home, you are safe and loved here
This ain't 'bout right or wrong
'cause you are perfect like you are now

You are home, you are safe and loved here
This ain't 'bout right or wrong
'cause you are perfect like you are now

You are home, you are safe and loved here
You need no mask of strong
'Cause you my com as you are my dear
You may come as you are
You may come as you are
