He shacked up with a girl that he met down at the AA
She used to be a dancer by the San Francisco Bay Shaking and grinding for 27 dollars a day and he shacked up with a girl that he met down at the
AA
Every night they're fighting the neighbours just sit and pray
Waiting for the day when they finally move away
The landlord doesn't care, the cops have little to say and he shacked up with a girl that he met down at the
No no no, no one wants to die, no one wants to fade away
He thinks of all the things that he can't recall today
The silence is deafening, the walls have nothing to say just him and the girl that he met down at the AA
He shacked up with a girl that he met down at the AA
She used to be a dancer by the San Francisco Bay
Now she was shaking and grinding for 27 dollars a day
He shacked up with a girl that he met down at the AA
Hey hey
na na na na na
I said: my my, hey hey, my my, hey hey, my my, the AA
