WORTH MY TIME performed by JoBeth Taylor, written by Deborah Gibson

Verse 1:

You gotta walk on pass your crushes, they tell me

Why waste precious time?

Baby, let's not ignore the feelings we have

Although they're not life-long strong inside

I feel my insides quiver

Why deny the physical signs?

Emotional confidence security

___ when you hold me

Chorus:

Take it for what it's worth

And that's a good (good) thing

Take it for what it's worth

And that's the joy you're bringing to my heart

Bringing the joy, I say joy

And piece of mind

I tell you what you're worth -

You're worth my time

Verse 2:

I adore you so much

But there's just something missing

It's not that you're doing something wrong

In fact, you're doing everything so right

Something's not real ____

But why dance around the chemistry

I don't wanna hear about the way

Things are supposed to be so

CHORUS

Bridge:

You're my baby, boy

Emotionally but I love taking care of you

I will make you strong and soon you will see how it feels

When the real thing clicks

But for now...

It's a good thing (it's a good thing)

You know (you know) it's a good (good) thing

You gotta take it

You gotta take it, why don't you take it away from me

You gotta take it

That's the joy you're bringing to my heart

Bringing the joy, I say joy

And piece of mind

You know you're worth my time.

You gotta take it

Good, good thing

Take it, just take it

... joy, you know what I'm saying

I'm your girl and you know how I feel

You know the deal
