I've got night vision, I can find my way home
I don't get nervous when I'm out on my own
I've got that sixth sense, I just follow the stars
But wherever I am, I wonder where you are

I walk a tightrope, I follow my heart
Just like a compass whenever we're apart
I believe that love comes shining through
I'd fly through the storm to find my way to you

[Chorus]

'Cause I'd be lost without you
I'd be slowly going crazy
You're the place I wanna be, you're all I ever need

I'd be lost
Lost without you

I'm on a mission, it's on with the show
I've got dreams that I'm chasing and places to go
But the further I wander, here's what I find
Wherever I am it's you that's on my mind

[Repeat Chorus]

For so long
I was caught up in the chase
Trying to find my place
And who am I to ever deny
When the world got me down
You came and you swept me away

[Repeat Chorus]
