They say there's a state of heaven
Somewhere way beyond the clouds
And I know there's a piece of heaven
In every little thing that you do
'Cause every time you walk in the room
My angel is here, my angel is here

Lying, saying I ain't lonely
Crying when no one sees my tears
I'm dying whenever love's disowned me
Each night I've prayed for help to get through
And when I felt you near me, I knew
My angel is here, my angel is here

I'm so protected and heaven's so near
When I am under your wing
My wounds are healed and my spirit is clear
So come on angel, make my heart sing

So when I'm lost and alone, who will find me?
Who's there whenever I call?
Show me the way to the strength that's inside me
Pick me up whenever I fall

You say, love is no conditions
And each soul is free to come and go
Stay strong, I don't need permission
'Cause paradise is waiting for me
And every time I hear my heart speak
My angel is here, my angel is here

And I feel you near
Ooh, my angel is here
