VERSE; You let your mind Run away from you You don't hear Cause you don't listen To the voice within your heart You let the world STOP YOU YOU COLD. VERSE; I can't tell you What you should know But I hate For you to miss life Because you didn't know To hear your heart You let your voice STOP YOU COLD. CHORUS; When you run From your very heart You get tangled From the noise from your mind You will never be happy Where you are Listen-listen Oh, listen to your heart Or you will be stopped cold. STOP YOU COLD. VERSE; It's your life But it's mine too I can't sit by And let the noise Destroy a love That was made for two Don't let the world STOP YOU COLD.
