Anyone can read the signs
Or the writing on the wall
It's all right there to see
Except someone like me
Who can't see the truth at all

It takes a special kind of fool
To stand out in the rain
Somewhere in between
Nothing left to lose
And nothing to be gained

What kind of fool does it take?
(What kind of fool does it take?)
To go on loving alone
(Loving alone)
Like there's some answer in the ruins
Some silver lining to be found

An even bigger fool might think (Bigger fool might think)
You would care if my arm breaks
Before the time that I admit
I'm just the kind of fool love makes

A wiser one would see
Nothing's gonna change
There's a time for giving up
A time for letting go
To learn from our mistakes

But I keep holding on to hope
(Holding on)
In spite of everything I know

What kind of fool does it take?
(What kind of fool does it take?)
To go on loving alone
(Loving alone)
Like there's some answer in the ruins
Some silver lining to be found

It takes a bigger fool to think (Bigger fool to think)
That the dawn will never break
On this day that I admit
I'm just the kind of fool love makes
On this day that I admit
I'm just the kind of fool love makes

I'm just the kind of fool love makes
(I'm just the kind of fool, I'm just the kind of fool)
(I'm just the kind of fool love makes)
(I'm just the kind of fool, I'm just the kind of fool)
(I'm just the kind of fool love makes)
