Hated tears, heart of gold, eyes like windows to the soul

Paint the sky, light the way, I wish more hours in the day

Dreams I desire, like dancing in the rain
Lightning strikes, never in the same place

No time to waste, you said, viva the love
Don't hesitate, I'ma gonna live it up
Every moonlight, every sunrise
I want, viva the love, viva the love, viva the love
Every moonlight, every sunrise
I want, viva the love, viva the love, viva the love

Place my head, on the ground, feel the earth it's all around
Drinking life, time and space, cannot die without a taste
Dreams I desire, like dancing in the rain
Lightning strikes, never in the same place

No time to waste, you said, viva the love

Don't hesitate, I'ma gonna live it up
Every moonlight, every sunrise
I want, viva the love, viva the love, viva the love
Every moonlight, every sunrise
I want, viva the love, viva the love, viva the love

Living the moment and live for today
Hope for tomorrow and pass on the flame
From first to last, to good, to bad and back again Never look back, never give in

No time to waste, you said, viva the love
Don't hesitate, I'ma gonna live it up
Every moonlight, every sunrise
I want, viva the love, viva the love, viva the love
Every moonlight, every sunrise
I want, viva the love, viva the love, viva the love.
