"Beyond And Back"

I'll go somewhere else, I'll move to the couch
It's darker in the dark, it's darker in the day
I forgot you were a liar

Now it's five to twelve, shut up and smoke
And I'll go somewhere else, no more orange nightgowns

One O'clock and then it ends
One O'clock and then it ends
One O'clock and then it ends
This is no place, this is no place
To be addicted to another place

Ever get to go don't you want me to make it
I took as long as you took you take a lot from me
I forgot you were a thief

I want to be like her instead I stay nowhere marked down in the basement lousy at the bottom

A life of intermission
A life of intermission
A life of intermission
This is no place, this is no place
To be addicted to another place

I'll go somewhere else, I'll move to the couch
It's darker in the dark, it's darker in the day
I forgot you were a liar

Now it's five to twelve, shut up and smoke
And I'll go somewhere else, no more orange
nightgowns

One O'clock and then it ends
One O'clock and then it ends
One O'clock and then it ends
