Talk to my troubled brain, if you can feel my pain,

so much hurting that's living in my head

Now I can barely breathe, and now my heart's disease and my name and my life have been stepped on and on.

No, no you made a fool of me, there is no way out.

I'm going down the drain, the name of God in vain,

you pushed me I'm insane, dissolution is knocking on my door.

Can't stop my bitter tears, oh take away my fears, body
and soul is blown up into pieces.

Oh cry out, I want to be free... dry out, I want to know the truth.

Let me drain my feelings out.

Laugh like a drain.

My emotions scream.

Let me drain!

So I can speak my mind.

I'm so blind, I am left in a land with just solitude, has this become my fate, who's next...

Be your bait, vicious cycle repeating on and on...

Cry out, I want to be loved.

Dry out, I want to see dreams.

Oh cry out, I want to be free.

Dry out, I want to know the truth...

Let me drain my feelings out.

Laugh like a drain.

My emotions scream.

Let me drain my feelings out.

Laugh like a drain.

My emotions scream.

Let me drain
