What used to be my home has changed
To pleasant place to stay
A crumbling last resort when the day is through Sometimes between sundown and dawn
Sometimes I find my way
To this Home Motel
On Lost Love Avenue

I'm gonna hang a neon sign
With letters big and blue, that says
Home Motel
On Lost Love Avenue

No one seems to really care
If I come here at all
And the one who seems to care the least is you

I'm gonna hang a neon sign
With letters big and blue, that says
Home Motel
On Lost Love Avenue
