at the temple of black gods i failed again for you - a chilvarous end for a man clandestine enthralling haze a docile sacrifice for your grace resurrect from the ban they put on you fall again - you will - what they foreknew only gods illuminate and just a slave to be is my fate and you will hear me siren's calls of temptation teasing you no limit will be no taboo of imagination i'll fill your void

i will always savour you as i will always be your fool
