Sun rays touching my skin like a stream of gold
Beauty, fame and wealth smell nice on top of the world
Made my day, this day made me the blessed one
My achievements will shine bright when all the smoke is gone

All those years and with all my heart
Reaching out for what would broaden my horizon
Perpetual striving made my life complete
And now that I reached new dimensions
I wonder why, I wonder why

There's still something in my head, I fail to explain
Falling deep into this void, only silence to remain
Sheer enlightenment of the soul, that's what I hoped to find
Reduced to instincts, I've to see, there will be no peace of mind

Left behind the ghosts I knew so well
Stepped into the light, into a new beginning
But can it be, I miss their company
Need their guidance and advice to define the inner me

Where's my dream of India?
Dead-end street to India
Been so close and yet so far
No return to India

Expectations once so high now seem down and low
They once sent shivers down my spine
Now make me tremble in my bones
Where's the dream that made me be, made me carry on?
Gave my longing for an end just to find that nothing's won

Means to an end, we're dedicated to
Might set an end to all those means we have to offer
I can't escape from this lifelong dream, I'm a captive of its shadows
Awaken, end to all sleep

Where's my dream of India?
Dead-end street to India
Been so close and yet so far
No return to India

Means to an end, we're dedicated to
Might set an end to all those means we have to offer
I can't escape from this lifelong dream, I'm a captive of its shadows
Awaken, end to all sleep

Where's my dream of India?
Dead-end street to India
Been so close and yet so far
Give me back my India

Once we have reached our destiny, we understand
That it is different from the dearest wishes at the beginning
It is much deeper, broader, sometimes greater Either we understand or we sail on and on and on
