Took sense and madness as they come
This circus life has left me on my own

My expectations were my home
But when the mirror cracks- there's so much left undone

Who betrayed and who deceived?
Loss of what I once believed

Feel I'm in a dream- scary scenes rush before my eyes
Wake up in a scream- this is real
Where's my paradise?
Downed my circumstance- innocence crushed under
this load
Will it ever end, where's my life?

Disastrous certainties once felt
My vast collection of a better time to tell

Knowing my worst enemy
Weak and helpless- is this me?

Feel I'm in a dream- scary scenes rush before my eyes
Wake up in a scream- this is real
Where's my paradise?
Downed my circumstance- innocence crushed under
this load

Late comprehension, a new dimension, a newborn child in it's fragile world [X4]

Feel I'm in a dream- scary scenes rush before my eyes
Wake up in a scream- this is real
Where's my paradise?
Downed my circumstance- innocence crushed under
this load
Will it ever end, where's my life? [x2]
