"What Am I To Do"

Visit "What Am I To Do" on MotoLyrics.com

Night and day I pray that you love no one but me
So you say you do, if that's the way, it's true
But I can't believe you took my heart
And tore it all apart, so

What am i to say, what am i to do
What am i to say, when you love someone and then it isn't...

People used to say we are the two they would like to be
For it seems as if we could never be true
But I can't believe you took my heart
And tore it all apart, so

isn't...
