I think of you and I
The time just seems to fly
Why did you have you die
And leave it all behind
And after this sad end
I have to comprehend
I'll never see dad again
This wont be the end

And I miss you
More than you could ever say or know
And I miss you
More than I could ever say or hear
And I miss you
More than you could ever say or know
And I miss you
More than this song ever could show

If I could turn back time
I'd leave my life behind
To be just by your side
My hero for all of time
I hope I'll make you proud
Right here I'll sing it loud
I still need you around
I still need you around

And I miss you
More than you could ever say or know
And I miss you
More than I could ever say or hear
And I miss you
More than you could ever say or know
And I miss you
More than this song ever could show

And I miss you
More than you could ever say or know
And I miss you
More than I could ever say or hear
And I miss you

More than you could ever say or know
And I miss you
More than this song ever could show

Can you hear me?
Can you hear me, say that you can
Can you hear me?
Can you hear me, say that you can
