"Cant Stop The Train"

Im on my way on a train
Steamin along in the rain
From the life I lived before
I have a tear in my eye
Sometimes its easy to cry
Though Im not a child anymore

Cant stop the train from a rollin
Nor make the wheels turn slow
You know I had to go
Cant stop the train from a rollin
And neither snow nor rain can get me back again

Im on the run from my home
Somehow Ill make it alone
If Im strong enough today
You know I have to go on Oh!
Pray for me while Im agone
Think of me sometime anyway

Cant stop the train . . .
