Help, I must find love once again
Someone more than a friend
Holding me tight
More than one night
Soothing the winters of my life

Please, stay with me here by my side
Time is passing us by
I will sustain
Most of the pain
Something in your smile pulls me through

Darling, Its You I love som madly
You know that Its You I want so badly
Its really hard to find a heaven of blue
Believe me now when I say "Darling Its You"

Stay, rest a while here in my arms
I will leave you unharmed
In your despair
Ill take good care
Something in your eyes says its true...
