When our love was new
you were all i had
and i died for you
when the nights were bad like a mountain stream
at the break of dawn
and the primal scream
when a child is born
wanna live
got to give

I lost my youth
and my confidence
when i fought for truth with my innocence
like the ocean waves
when the sea gives birth and the seeds of grain
grow in mother earth
wanna live
got to give
wanna live

Across the universe
pain is nothing new
still its getting worse Oh, if Im losing you
so please dont go
love me once again
before my time is out
pour a little rain
Oh, in this time of drought and please dont go

When our love was deep
there were times i cried when i went to sleep
with your love inside
and the universe above

Wanna live

got so much to give
wanna live
