[Joe Budden]

Look mami, between me and you Nothing has to come inbetween me seein' you This aint me G'n you Yet you say somethin to convince me leavin boo Matter fact, dont bother ma, she's cheatin too Relationships like work; girl you fine but Can't leave a job until the next one's lined up In the past I like to ball And my motto is how could i know my type until I tried em all But peep it, ill try it if you keep quiet
This could be our little weakness
Our little secret,
This is how it should be now
See how Joe E claimin a new she now Come on we can leave now....

[Xavier Aeon]

As soon as I walked in, I seen you, chillin with your crew
It was right then, I knew, I'd be leavin here with you So tell me, if I should, be pursuin' my intuition My ears are open girl, oh, as you walk over to me and tell me:

--chorus--

[Girl] I think that we should slide up, somewhere so we can be alone

[Xavier] Its not that simple, my girl is up in here and thats a no-no

[Girl] But baby I'm feelin you, and i want you right now, don't stress your girl aint gonna know

[Xavier]

Well since youre talkin like that, baby come a little closer and let me know if you can keep a secret;

I'm feelin you, and when the club gets out I wanna leave with you

And I know that I came with my girl and thats wrong
But who cares because it feels so right Can you keep a secret, I'm diggin you When the club gets out I'm gonna leave with you I dont care if you n me are followed up in here 'cause youre leavin with me tonight

[end chorus]

But you know I won't go get down and follow this feelin
But I came with my girl and that ain't right 'cause I can't be caught cheatin
But don;t you know I'm feelin you and thats the damndest truth
I wanna jump in my ride and get you to the room Girl you know we can't leave, but you keep on whispering to me:

[chorus]

I'm leaving, found my new thing, dont know if ill ever be back again
Leavin... yo hold up I dont think she heard me, im gonna say it again Baby im leavin, find a new man, thought I told you ill never be back again Leavin... yo, just bring the hook back man

[semi-chorus]
