This boy always said
Be careful I'd rather be dead
And she said, come on give me your hand
We'll fly up to the moon
They flew the universe
Those two breathers

And I can't stop now
Cause the birds they belong in the sky
And I don't know why I even try
And no! I won't let this die
Let this die

All of this is soon gonna die
The sky will be falling
The birds will be crying
The trees will be dying
There it goes our golden globe

And I can't stop now
Cause the birds they belong in the sky
And the trees to the ground
The ground, oh my
And no! I won't let this die
Let this die

Why does she even waste her time
He's not gonna change his mind
Someone gives and someone takes
There's no time to make mistakes

And I can't stop now
Cause the birds they belong in the sky
And the trees to the ground
The ground, oh my
And no! I won't let this die
Let this die
Let this die
Let this die
