We could laugh all day
And no, it won't ever fade
And no, it won't ever fade

We could speak all day
Without saying anything
Without saying anything

And I feel you next to me
And I know when you're with me
That the whole world stops and stares with jealousy
Thinking: wish she was with me
So I'm lucky you're with me

And we could run around in circles
Without getting anywhere
But oh we'd go everywhere
But oh we'd go everywhere

And we could lie under the stars
Wave to passing cars
Wave to passing cars

And I feel you next to me
And I know when you're with me
That the whole world stops and stares with jealousy
Thinking: wish she was with me
So I'm lucky you're with me
