ICED

Written and performed by TEMPLE OF ETERNITY

My time has come the disease has won Im in a cold time-out until new cures are found

Im iced

They have captured my breath
Ive been frozen to death
They have bottled my blood are they as mighty as God ?

I had to die to live for decades being a stiff Entombed, a cocoon of ice
I will be born twice

Now Im born again
Im cured, but in dispear
The people I loved are gone
I am alive, but also alone
