Lyrics/Music W.Bullock/H.Spina

(Cut from the film formerly Lucky Penny, sung with Charles Farrell)

(Shirley)

I don't need a horseshoe
Don't need four-leaf clovers
'Cause I'll always be lucky with you

On Friday the thirteenth
I'll walk under ladders!
'Cause I'll always be lucky with you

That rabbit's foot I'll throw away for good
And don't ask me to knock on wood!

I won't cross my fingers
But nuthin' can happen
'Cause I'll always be lucky with you!

(Farrell, spoken)
And you wouldn't be afraid if someday
A big black cat should cross your path?

(Shirley)
No! I'll always be lucky with you!

(Farrell, spoken)
And suppose you should break a mirror?
Wouldn't that seven years business scare you?

(Shirley)
No! 'Cause I'll always be lucky with you!
Those superstitious things are just a bluff
I'm MUCH too old for all that stuff!

(Farrell, spoken)
Yes? Well how about the wish you made last week
When you saw that falling star?

(Shirley)
Well . . . I'll always be lucky
(whispers) 'Cause the wish was all about you
