

Temple Shirley

"The Enchanted Melody"

Visit "The Enchanted Melody" on MotoLyrics.com

Music Vic Mizzy

A television series conceived and carried out with the whole family in mind is certain to provide viewers with rich and rewarding entertainment. Such a program is The Shirley Temple Show (originally called Storybook) which has accounted for some of television's brightest and most memorable hours

Presenting an anthology of the beloved classics and contemporary stories, supplemented by wholeÂsome original material, The Shirley Temple Show is notable for the extremely varied fare which it offers; from fondly-recalled fairy tales to exciting science fiction, from hilarious comic strip characters to the heroic figures of great literature, from sparkling musical fantasy to realistic drama. Variety is the key to the popularity of this fine series which knows no bounds but good taste and good viewing

At the hub and heart of the program is Shirley Temple, a star who holds a unique position in the minds and hearts of people of all ages - a star who lends a special kind of enchantment to each and every presentation in the outstanding series

Exceptional musical background stands out like another star performer on The Shirley Temple Show. In particular, Vic Mizzy's theme for the series, The Enchanted Melody, will be remembered for the wondrous mood it creates. Here is music which captures the charm of our celebrated hostess and keenly anticipates the bountiful entertainment to come. No other title could be more suitable for this melody which so effectively evokes images and colorful characters, exciting legends and lands, fantastic tales and delightful fables . . . the promise of a whole world of entertainment is liltingly conveyed by this truly enchanted melody

